

Making Arrangements when a Death Has Occurred

The compassionate, experienced staff of Feldman Mortuary are ready to meet with you to make final arrangements for your loved one. We understand how hard it can be making these decisions and how many things there are to consider. We're here to help. We'll go through the entire process carefully, explaining your choices, offering suggestions and giving you the time you need to make informed decisions.

When getting started, our funeral director will need the following information about your loved one, which is required for the death certificate.

_____	_____	_____
First Name	Middle Name	Last Name
_____	_____	_____
Address	City	State   Zip
Marital Status:
<input type="checkbox"/> Single	<input type="checkbox"/> Married _____	<input type="checkbox"/> Widow/Widower _____
	Name of Spouse	Name of Spouse
Race/Ethnicity _____
Birth Date _____ City/State _____
Highest level of education _____
_____	_____
Father's Name	Mother's Name (Including Maiden Name)
Occupation and Employer _____

The funeral director may also need pertinent documents required to do all the legal paperwork. Those documents include:

- Beneficiary designations
- Last Will

If no pre-planning has been done, arrangements will need to be made for the funeral service. Arrangements will include:

- Scheduling the location, date and time of the funeral service
- Selecting burial or cremation
- Choosing funeral products
- Arranging a cemetery plot
- Preparing an obituary notice
- Scheduling transportation arrangements

Your funeral director will guide you in creating a memorable, personalized funeral for your loved one. ■

1673 York Street
Denver, Colorado 80206
303.322.7764
www.FeldmanMortuary.com